Blue Cross Blue Shield Global Traveler

1. What is the Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS) Global Traveler plan?

- Blue Cross Blue Shield Global Traveler plan, provided by GeoBlue, is a medical plan that will be your primary medical plan only when you travel outside the United States. The plan is available to you and your dependents insured on participating BCBS group plans, at no additional cost to you. It covers both business and leisure travel, includes accidental death & dismemberment (AD&D) coverage and 24/7/365 support services.

2. What are the eligibility requirements?

- You must be enrolled in a BCBS medical plan sponsored by your employer to be eligible to participate. If there is a maximum age for coverage in your BCBS medical plan, the BCBS Global Traveler plan will follow suit.
- Employees, as well as spouse/domestic partners and dependents of BCBS plan members, who have opted out of your employer-sponsored BCBS medical plan or are covered under a different medical plan will not be eligible to participate with Blue Cross Blue Shield Global Traveler plan. Non-covered members can purchase an individual GeoBlue travel medical plan at www.geobluetravelinsurance.com

4. I already have a business travel plan. What is the difference?

- Typically, a business travel accident policy covers you while on company business. Leisure and sojourn travel coverage are typically buy-ups. Additionally, many business travel plans only cover emergencies, not sick visits or non-emergent care.
- The travel benefits provided by a BCBS Global Traveler will protect both you and your dependents' health, whenever travel is outside the US, on company business or leisure.

5. Is Global Traveler compatible with a high deductible health plan?

- The BCBS Global Traveler plan has a $0 deductible for care while traveling outside the U.S. This could impact the ability to make the maximum HSA contribution.
- If you or your dependents plan on adding a substantial amount to their HSA or have significant travel plans, you should consult their tax advisor.
- This information is provided by GeoBlue (Worldwide Insurance Services) for informational purposes only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice. Should you need guidance with any questions or concerns about an HSA account, they should consult a professional advisor.

12. What should I do if an emergency occurs while traveling or during the trip?

- For urgent/emergency situations, you should always contact the local emergency phone number for immediate assistance. For peace of mind, you can check what the local emergency number is in your location or destination ahead of time so that you have this on hand in addition to identifying some network providers in your location.
- To ensure you are prepared in the event of an emergency, be sure to get access to your electronic ID card before you travel by registering for the mobile app and/or the Member Hub at www.geo-blue.com

13. What should I do if me or a family member needs to be admitted to the hospital?

- You should contact the dedicated Global Traveler phone number:

Inside the US (toll-free): 833-511-4760

Outside the US: +1-610-263-2000

("+"= when calling from outside the US, you must first dial the country's exit code before the applicable country code and phone number)

- Indicate who is expected to go to the hospital. You will need to have your group access code and the name of the hospital available to provide this to our contact center. Our Global Health and Safety team will identify a network provider, if needed. If medical reports are needed, our clinicians will contact your doctor for periodic updates.

14. I lost medication during my trip and need a replacement- can GeoBlue?

- Replacement of lost or stolen prescription drugs is not covered under the plan, however you can visit a provider to seek a consultation and a new prescription for a local equivalent. As a convenient reference tool, you can check in our Member Hub under “Tools and Services” and “Medicine Equivalents”. Prescription and over-the-counter medications are sold under different names in different countries. This tool can serve as a convenient reference, but it is always best to check with a local provider.

15. What is the Global Traveler Contact Center Phone Number?

- The Global Traveler dedicated phone numbers to call are: Inside the US (toll-free): 833-511-4760

Comparison with Global Core

17. What is the difference between Global Traveler and Global Core?

- You may have Global Core benefits as part of your domestic medical plan. Global Core benefits are determined by your Blue Cross Blue Shield plan. If you do have Global Core benefits, you would be subject to the same benefit levels, deductibles, coinsurance and in/out-of-network benefits of provided by your domestic medical plan, when traveling internationally.
- Your Global Traveler plan is separate from any benefits you may receive from Global Core. In fact, your Global Traveler policy becomes your primary medical coverage when you travel internationally. Global Traveler is designed to cover services that are essential when traveling such as medical evacuation and repatriation that may not be provided by your domestic plan. It also provides 24/7/365 service, support and does not require your Domestic Plan to approve services, unlike Global Core, therefore with Global Traveler there is immediate confirmation of benefits and coverage status.

18. Are benefits under the Global Traveler plan coordinated with primary domestic health plans or Global Core?

- Global Traveler is an independent product on its own certificate and thus benefits are not coordinated with Global Core or primary domestic health plans. If a member has an international claim while active in their Global Traveler plan, the claim is processed and paid by GeoBlue.
